GREEN BAY'S PROPOSAL TO HAVE HEARING

Traffic Bureau of Chamber of Commerce Wants Assurance of Satisfactory Service

DEAL WITH NORTHWESTERN TO BE REVIEWED BY BOARD

Railroad Commission is Asked to Arrange for a Hearing on Proposition

If the Green Bay & Western Railway company is to abandon its train service from Marshfield to La Crosse, the traffic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce wants assurance that the Northwestern road will provide adequate switching service for Green Bay traffic, that the outgoing freight will be handled so as to make good connections at Marshfield and that satisfactory passenger connections will be provided.

In order to make provision for this service, the traffic bureau will ask the railroad commission of Wisconsin to arrange for a hearing on the proposition of the Green Bay road to turn its business from Marshfield to La Crosse over to the Northwestern line.

Pursuant to a call by the traffic bureau a meeting of interested citizens was held in the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night to consider the application of the C. B. & W. Ry. Co. to the railroad commission of Wisconsin for permission to arrange with the C. & N. W. to handle their freight traffic to and from La Crosse in connection with G. B. & W. via Marshfield.

The subject was thoroughly discussed, and while there were no objections to a joint arrangement with one of the other lines to take over the freight traffic of the C. B. & W. Ry. Co. those present did not feel that citizens should give their approval to the proposition without positive assurance from the railroad commission and interested carriers that the arrangement would be permanent, that adequate switching service would be rendered, that the outgoing freight would be handled in such a manner as to make the same connections at Marshfield that it does now, thus resulting in parity with Winona in point of service, and that satisfactory passenger connections be provided.

The traffic bureau was instructed to write the commission accordingly and request that it assign the case for hearing at the earliest possible date, giving all parties an opportunity to be heard.

FARMING OUT SYSTEM OF RAIL REPAIR WORK IS BARRED UNDER RAILWAY LABOR BOARD ORDER

Decision, However, Will Not Halt Strike Vote Now Being Taken by Railway Brotherhoods; 1,600 on Strike in Maryland

CHICAGO, Ill.—Decision against contracting shop repair work to outside firms by railroad companies in an order handed down by the railroad labor board Wednesday will not halt the strike vote being taken by the 500,000 union shopmen on the contract question.

Strike threats have increased steadily in the last few months as the contract system of "farming out" railroad work spread. About 1,600 men in the shops of the Western Maryland railroad are now on strike as a result of a contract given by the road to a repair company to perform all shop work.

The principles of Wednesday's decision, the board said, will apply to all future contract decisions. There are now 37 cases pending before the board.

WON'T AFFECT STRIKE VOTE

At the shop crafts unions' recent convention here, a strike ballot was ordered on the contract question and by the board last fall. The contract decision will not affect the strike vote, shop union officials said today.

Although it was reported that one of the three labor board members representing the railroad group demurred for a time, the vote on the farming out decision was finally unanimous. The significance the board attached to its action is indicated by the following excerpt from the opinion:

"No more important dispute has ever come before this board for adjudication. It goes to the vitals of the transportation act. If the carrier can legally do the thing which has been done under these contracts, then the entire transportation act can be nullified and the will of the congress of the United States set at naught."

"Might Affect Every Employee

"If one class of employees can thus be taken from under the application of the act, there is no sound reason why each and every railroad employee in the United States cannot be given like treatment. One class of employment lends itself as readily to this method as another."

In specific explanation as to the nature of the case, the opinion continues:

"Contracts have been recently entered into by various carriers, purporting to turn over to so-called independent contractors the work of the following classes of employees:

"The six shop crafts, the maintenance of way, certain employees embraced in the clerks' organization, the firemen and oilers, the hostlers (embraced in the engine service), and signal department employees."

IGNORANCE BLAMED FOR UNDERFEEDING OF CHILDREN HERE

Health and Welfare Worker Tells La Crosse Mothers of Child's Needs

"UNFITNESS OF YOUNG MEN DIDN'T HAPPEN IN A YEAR"

Draft During War Showed Need of Welfare Stations

"Undernourished children are the victims of ignorance more than poverty," declared Mrs. Louise Featherstone, of the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial Fund of Chicago, who spoke Wednesday night at the La Crosse high school. The meeting was the only one to be held in the city during Health week, to which the public was invited. Mrs. Featherstone spoke on proper nutrition for children.

"The war was a great revealer of things," she said. "The draft showed a third of the young men in the country were physically unfit. While no examination like that of the draft was made among the young women of the country, I believe that test would show a similar number of physically unfit."

VICTIMS OF HABIT TROUBLES

"These young men didn't become unfit in a year. Abscessed teeth, diabetes, Bright's disease, functional heart disease and habit troubles, they were a long time in forming. They didn't happen in a year. The first year of the war didn't see much done for the physically unfit but the second year of the war was designated as children's year. It was then that we started to find out what was wrong with the children, what could be done to aid the mothers in finding out what was wrong with their children and how they could correct the faults. They found out that undernourished children were the result of ignorance, not poverty."

DRAFTED UNDER DIRECT ORDERS FROM MOSCOW

First Half of Note of Argumentative Character With Constructive Proposals Following

LLOYD GEORGE TO CARRY ON IF FRANCE AND BELGIUM LEAVE

Will Try to "Work Ship to Port With Short-handed Crew"

GENOA.—By The Associated Press.—Russia's reply to the allied memorandum, made public Thursday evening, declares the financial differences between the powers and Russia require deeper study and it suggests the appointment of a mixed committee of experts by the economic conference to consider these questions.

GENOA.—By The Associated Press.

Foreign Minister Tchitcherine of soviet Russia personally handed the Russian reply to the allied memorandum Thursday to Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy in the latter's room at the Palazzo Reale. The only other person present was Francesco Giannini, the Italian financial expert.

A friendly conversation of forty-five minutes followed in which M. Tchitcherine stressed the fact that the answer had been prepared under direct instructions from Moscow.

Desire to Co-operate

M. Tchitcherine repeated assurances of his good will and his desire to co-operate with the other delegations.

After the Russian foreign minister had left, Signor Schanzer read the note, which consists of fifteen pages.

The first part of the note is argumentative but the second half was reported to be constructive, making proposals dealing with financial questions.

The note, it was stated, suggests the appointment of a new special commission by the conference to continue the negotiations after the close of the Genoa meeting.

BRITON TO CARRY ON

LONDON.—A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Genoa says that if the French and Belgians quit the conference Premier Lloyd George will remain "and try to work the ship to port with a short-handed crew."

M. Stern offered to take over the properties for operation for "a term of 25 or 50 years, or such other time as may be agreeable," to complete the plants at government cost, and to repay all expenditures already made at Muscle Shoals at the rate of two per cent annually. Power developed at the shoals will be used to "manufacture fertilizers to such extent as may be feasible" and other products.

"SANE PROGRESSIVES" OVER STATE SELECT DELEGATES TO "44" G. O. P. CONFERENCE

REPUBLICANS START CAMPAIGN AGAINST RADICALS IN STATE

La Crosse County Conference Elects Delegates to State Conference

SEVERAL WOMEN CHOSEN TO GO TO MILWAUKEE

Representative List of Workers from all Parts of County

REPUBLICANS of La Crosse county, in a conference at the court house Wednesday night elected 20 delegates and 20 alternates to the citizens' republican state conference at Milwaukee June 1, and fired the opening gun in what was termed by Chairman Otto Bosshard a campaign against radicalism and bolshevism in Wisconsin.

Mr. Bosshard, who is chairman of the committee of forty-four, formed in Milwaukee last October, served as temporary chairman of the county conference last night and was elected permanent chairman on motion of J. E. McConnell. Clarence J. Weber was elected secretary.

"The committee of forty-four is only a piece of political machinery," said Mr. Bosshard in explaining the purpose of the county conference and the state conferences to be held in Milwaukee June 1, when candidates for state offices will be endorsed.

"The committee was not formed to promote the candidacy of any person or persons. The committee was formed to combat radicalism as manifested in bills proposed in the last legislature and to elect state officers and legislators who will demand sane legislation."

Cites Radical Bills

Mr. Bosshard cited the Dahl taxation bill, providing for the payment of both of personal property and income taxes and raising the exemption to $5,000 and the marketing bill providing for a commission to be created "powers of life and death" as radical and bolshevistic measures. Twenty members of the legislature decided the time had come to organize to protect the people of the state from the radicals and as a result the committee of 44 was formed. Every member of this committee pledged himself not to be a candidate for any state office this fall, and the committee is espousing the candidacy of no person or persons, the speaker said.

Mr. Bosshard read a letter from Senator Skogmo, secretary of the committee, setting forth the purpose of the county and state conferences, to "combat those who seek to destroy the fundamental provisions of this government—to fight radicalism in Wisconsin."

Can Defeat Blaine

Emphasizing the opportunity which presents itself to defeat the radicals, if republicans will co-operate in this movement to endorse one set of candidates, Mr. Bosshard pointed out that in the primary election two years ago Governor Blaine won out over Roy Wilcox by a scant 4,000 votes, and that for every vote which Mr. Blaine received 2 3/4 votes were cast for other republican candidates for governor. Had there been only one candidate against Blaine, the latter would have been badly beaten, he said.

On motion of P. J. Yerly, a committee of five was appointed to nominate delegates and alternates to the state conference. Chairman Bosshard appointed on this committee P. J. Yerly, B. C. Smith, Mrs. Charles Hickisch, F. B. Gessler of Bangor and O. Gullickson of West Salem.

The committee reported a list of delegates and alternates, which was adopted by unanimous vote. The delegates and alternates followed:

Delegates: E. E. Jones, Rockland; Mrs. W. A. Trapp, Campbell; Orrin Fletcher, Lud Christopherson, Burns; G. W. Garlock, Ernie McKelvie, West Salem; Allen M. Mrs. E. C. Thompson; Mrs. Frank Nussbaumer, Miss Bertha Hickisch, Mrs. J. M. Blair, R. S. Cowie, J. M. Holley, Harry Walker, John Shultz, Mrs. Frank Pierce, Campbell; V. A. Bradley, West Salem; Ed Seboe, Farmington; Thomas Johnson, Holmen; Joseph Raiz, Washington; Frank Pierce, Onalaska.

MOST OF COUNTIES' REPRESENTATIVES ARE UNINSTRUCTED

Morgan Gets Praise But no Definite Pledge of Support in Milwaukee

BAKER IS ENDORSED BY DANE COUNTY CONVENTION

Nils Haugen, Former La Follette Leader, Heads Dane Delegates

MADISON, Wis.—Delegates to the citizens' republican state conference at Milwaukee June 1, were selected at county meetings throughout Wisconsin Wednesday. In most counties of the state the political forces opposed to the La Follette progressive faction within the republican party organized to carry their fight into the September general election primaries.

Few delegates chosen at the local conferences were instructed to support specific candidates at the Milwaukee gathering, which will name a full slate of state officers in opposition of the La Follette ticket.

Dane county representatives at the meeting were instructed to endorse John F. Baker, assistant attorney general, for attorney general, and the Milwaukee conference expressed the belief that Attorney General William J. Morgan would carry that county if selected as the candidate for governor in opposition to Governor Blaine. No other reports of endorsements have been received.

Oppose La Follette Faction

Throughout the state the meetings accepted the principle of the committee of forty-four, the executive committee directing organization of the citizens' republican conference. Opposition to the La Follette organization was expressed through speeches and resolutions.

Some counties, it developed, had postponed their meetings until later in the month while others had not yet organized to select delegates. Effort will be made to hold conferences at these places in order to assure a full attendance of the 998 delegates, and the same number of alternates, at the Milwaukee convention.

Women received recognition by nearly all of the county meetings and will make up a large proportion of the delegates who are to choose the ticket of state officers. No women candidates for office have announced themselves, however.

Most are Uninstructed

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Secretary George B. Skogmo of the committee of forty-four which called the meetings for county conferences to select delegates to the citizens' republican state conference in Milwaukee June 1 when a state ticket, opposing the La Follette progressive republican slate will be named, said that out of the many reports he had received following various county delegate meetings Wednesday, practically all favored the sending of delegates uninstructed.

Typical of the reports, he said, was the adoption by the meeting held in Marathon county of a resolution that its delegates attend the Milwaukee conference uninstructed, the members preferring to be guided by developments at the state gathering.

Harmony in Milwaukee County meeting was called to order an agreement was reached with respect to the only troublesome question in sight, namely, pledged Milwaukee county delegates to vote for Morgan.

A compromise was reached whereby the meeting praised Morgan's administration as attorney general, praised him as gubernatorial timber, and predicted sweeping victory for him in his home county if he is endorsed by the conference on June 1. But the resolution did not pledge Milwaukee's delegates to vote for Morgan at this state conference.

Morgan was present and conferred with republican leaders as the harmony resolution was drawn up. As the conference convened, it appeared there would be no fight over the election of Arthur Barry as chairman.

Haugen Heads Madison Delegation

MADISON, Wis.—Dane County independent republicans at a conference Wednesday afternoon selected delegates to attend a state-wide meeting to be held at Milwaukee on June 1. Strong resolutions were adopted regarding that all applicants for the governorship tendering their candidacy to the Citizens' Republican State Conference "pledge their undivided support to the nominee of the convention or forfeit all consideration of such convention." The platform declared that the republican party in Wisconsin is and should be overwhelmingly and constructively progressive. These resolutions commend Sen. L. L. Leppert of Superior for the "integrity of his statesmanship."

"We brand as unfair," declares the platform, "the childish and malicious attempt of Governor Blaine and Sen. (Continued on page six)"

RIVIERA THEATER HAS ORGANIZED ITS OWN MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

Twelve Clever Artists to Present First Class Entertainment

Something new and entirely different in the line of amusements will be presented at the Riviera theater, beginning Sunday, May 14. The Riviera has organized its own musical comedy company, which will be known as "The Winter Garden Frolics." This company will consist of twelve clever artists, who will present productions of a class designed to entertain and amuse the most critical. The manager of the company went to Chicago to select the best talent obtainable, and to get special scenery and a wardrobe that is most magnificent and gorgeous. A scenic artist will be with the company, and he will make special settings for each production. Daily rehearsals have been held at the Riviera for the past two weeks and nothing has been spared to make this company the best in the line of musical comedy. Elaborate scenery, abundance of good singing and dancing, good music and amusing and bright comedy, with ginger, pep and plenty of jazz, makes this the brightest presentation ever shown here. Three old favorites will be seen with "The Winter Garden Frolics." Max Golden, well known to the people of La Crosse for his clever comedy roles; James Dooley, known as a first class impersonator with rare ability; and Lillian Besant, "The Queen of Syncopation," will add to the popularity of the new company. The Trio consists of three clever likable chaps, and will sing the latest popular songs in a pleasing manner. The chorus consists of six pretty girls with plenty of personality, and promises to be quite a treat. A wonderful line-up of feature pictures has been obtained to be shown in conjunction with the new musical show, such as "Sisters," "Queen of the Turf," Eugene O'Brien in "Channing of the Northwest," Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in "The Safety Curtain," Owen Moore in "Reported Missing," "Conway" Teague in "Shadows of the Sea," "The Black of Araby," and Mildred Harris in "The First Woman." All of these are high class productions, and are the best that can be found.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND

Radio Sermons

TOM SIMS, whose frequent paragraphs in the Tribune give this part of the country many a good laugh, said recently that "the best thing about a sermon by radio is that you can listen to it with your shoes off." With due recognition of the frequent discomfort of Sunday shoes, we nevertheless protest, with a La Crosse clergyman who discussed it recently, that Sims put his finger on the worst instead of the best point about radio sermons. If church services by radio become a custom of the country in the next few years, one may with some reason fear that the already somewhat attenuated religious spirit in the nation will be still more diluted. For it is not the sermon, in most cases, that is the greatest benefit to the average churchgoer. The sermon may be instructive, well-reasoned and eloquent, but it takes effect very largely through the atmosphere of the church edifice. The peace, the dignity, the impression of sanctity with which all churches are somehow imbued are the most valuable influences of every proper church service. Not the most eloquent pulpit orator in the country could be such a power for good as the mere spirit of worship which pervades a building consecrated to worship of the Almighty. If his audience sat around in shirt-sleeves, isolated in the environment of their daily practical existence, to hear him, a great part of his effectiveness would vanish with its proper background. One gets out of one's daily routine by going to church. There is quiet, there is majestic music, there is calm and dignity. The very surroundings and setting of the service unconsciously impress one with the feeling that this is a high and holy place. The calculations and petty complexities of day-to-day life cannot easily follow one to the church. One's mind is freed, in proportion to his spiritual capacity, from the material. Thus do we receive the greatest of the benefits which the traditional form of church service confers upon its participants. The radio is a great step forward in civilized achievement, but if it shall ever replace public worship of God in God's house it will be more of an evil in respect of religion than it will be a blessing, except to those who are for some reason unable to attend church in person.

Genoa Makes Headway

CRISES continue to make the best-advertised feature of the Genoa conference, but there may be something more substantial than crises develop from it ultimately, one hopes, in view of the very promising and apparently satisfactory agreement which has been reached at Genoa by the Germans and Poles over the matter of Upper Silesia. Six months ago Germany and Poland were on the edge of war over this area, claimed by each as the result of a plebiscite which settled very little, and an action presumably based on the prebiscite by an allied commission, which decision satisfied neither party and seemed only to make matters worse. It was necessary to rush French, British and Italian troops into Silesia to keep the peace, and on the whole it looked like a most dangerous situation.

Now the peril is passed with an agreement whereby the Germans and Poles mutually recognize the political sovereignty of each other in the districts assigned them by the decision, and agree not to interfere with the economic unity of the region. In plain English, neither side will erect a tariff wall to bar out the products of the region produced in the territory owned by the other. Thus the natural affinity between Upper Silesian iron ore and coal will be maintained, and each side will profit by it. This seems an eminently sensible solution, since neither Germany nor Poland could agree to permitting the possession of the entire district to go to the other. It indicates, perhaps, one way in which economic reconstruction of Europe could be vastly hastened all through the central and eastern portions, where each little "succession state" has put up tariff bars and practically strangled its own trade and that of its neighbors.

This is, without doubt, a notable achievement of the conference, illustrative of the genuine importance of getting conflicting governments around a table, and indicative of the potentialities of the Genoa conference if statesmen could forget selfish policies and let common-sense and compromise have their way. It heals one of the big sores the war left with Europe, and lends confidence to the belief that many of the rest would yield to the same treatment.

Intuition

AS women become emancipated and "get the hang of things," after thousands of years of compulsory seclusion, they will demonstrate that the female brain is superior to the male. Woman has every brain faculty possessed by man, though reasoning sometimes is dormant because women have been isolated from problems and situations that require reasoning. A few generations will strengthen this faculty to par. In addition, woman has the sixth sense, intuition, in a degree possessed by no man. Intuition is the shadow of imagination, the dynamic force behind all new things. It was intuition that prompted Mrs. Elias Howe to tell her husband to move the needle's eyelet to the sharp end, thus perfecting the sewing machine.

NEW YORK learns that its congestion of population has been reduced by the subway, which enables city workers to live far out and get back and forth at fast speed. Some future Henry Ford will go a long step further, marketing a cheap flying flivver. That day will begin the gradual breaking up of the big cities. They will be reduced to groups of factories and stores. Homes will be in the country—fresh air and plenty of playground for the children.

Dress Goods a La King

By R. RAY BAKER

Agnes Morton appeared to be in one of her cold, calculating moods this afternoon; but Cecil Sargent had the temerity to approach her and not on a matter of business connected with Chalmers and Chalmers, who were dealers in dress goods. It was a more personal subject that he had to broach—a much more personal subject.

He stopped at her desk and fidgeted for a few seconds, shifting his weight from one foot to another. Agnes looked up at him and he was not in her good graces; she had showed it all too plainly on more than one occasion of late. But he just had to speak to her about the subject that made his world go round.

Cecil's hesitation was not occasioned by the fact that the young woman was his boss, by reason of her holding the position as sales manager, while he was but a salesman. He felt trepidation because he knew she was not in her good graces; she had showed it all too plainly on more than one occasion of late. But he just had to speak to her about the subject that made his world go round.

"Agnes," he said, in a voice that almost faltered, "I want to know if you can get the date for our wedding."

She looked up from the letter she was reading and smiled slightly, rather, pityingly, it seemed.

"Well, hardly," she returned. "I don't remember that I have definitely accepted your offer of marriage as yet. I was considering it some time ago."

"I'll admit, but you've been such a wretched business failure lately that I'm on the point of giving it up. You don't imagine I want to marry a failure do you? Do you realize you have not sold a hundred dollars worth of goods in a month?"

Cecil realized it all too well. But what was he to do? He was a good salesman, and he knew it; but he had been so worried lately over Agnes that he couldn't keep his mind on his work. Every time he tried to make a sale, he found himself much lower in her estimation, and every time he dropped a notch in that respect he lost just as much of his business as he gained.

"I know it," he confessed, in answer to her indictment, "but if you would only give me some definite encouragement, perhaps I'd come back a salesman. You've got me worried."

She tapped her lips with the eraser end of a pencil and studied him intently. He was a nice looking young man, she realized that, and he was bright and clever, too. Still, those things counted for naught unless they brought results. Agnes had no intention of supporting a husband; when she became tied in a nuptial knot she expected to retire from business and devote herself to housekeeping. As she looked at Cecil in that scrutinizing manner she realized that he was becoming careless in regard to his appearance.

"Don't you think," she suggested, "that a shoe shine would help to give you a little more of a manly appearance? It's a shoe shine and the pointed end of your tie-pin is sticking out like a sword. And you have a dinner engagement with Adelaide Amberson this evening; don't forget that."

She paused as he stood there like a condemned criminal.

"If you sell Miss Amberson a good bill of goods and sell her a good dress, I'll give you a good recommendation."

Cecil gulped.

"Oh, all right, then!" he replied, and went away, feeling more discouraged than ever.

Sell a good bill of goods to Adelaide Amberson, eh? That would be a herculean task. Adelaide represented Smith and Brown, the biggest dress goods buyers in the state. Every time she came down the salesman made it a wild scramble to see her; but for three years Chalmers and Chalmers had not sold her for a cent, although she took her out to dinner. James Bratherton had been the lucky ones, and Cecil knew the reason. They employed a "vamp" who was a salesman, a fashion-plate of a dude, one Henry Watters, who charmed Adelaide—somehow, not a "vamp" herself, into buying goods.

Women in business certainly were making a mess of things. Agnes was too practical and Adelaide too impractical. The former demanded too close adherence to business principles and the latter had no regard for them. The man who could captivate Adelaide with his clothes and the one who landed her orders, and Cecil certainly was not a good dresser; that is he could not go to extremes. Henry Watters understood her with his clothes and made her buy while she was unconscious.

Thus Cecil soliloquized as he made his way to the street. He was very unpleasantly dressed in his very unbecoming flash of red from a window caught his notice. It was an extreme case of the color of his tie, which checked with an idea, and it made him gasp. Here was something that had stunning possibilities. He conceived a plan, then, and he went in and purchased the tie. He had suddenly decided to make a strenuous attempt to get Adelaide's order. He had to in order to be happy.

At the family hotel where he lived he struggled with the tie and he was not until half past five o'clock that he proclaimed himself the victor, standing before the mirror and blinking his eyes at the prize below his neck.

Then suddenly he discovered that his trousers needed pressing, and he called a boy, who took the trousers away to be pressed. The only pair he possessed were those of shabbiness, so he remained in his room and waited.

OUT OUR WAY

The tailor was slow, and when the hour of six arrived Cecil was fuming with impatience. He called the tailor and was assured the trousers would be right up. The dinner engagement was for seven.

At 6:30 he called again. "They'll be right up," the tailor assured. "They're ready now and the boy is just waiting for Mr. Carson's trousers. Mr. Carson's in a hurry, too."

Confound Mr. Carson! So he was delaying the game. He was a young Englishman, the last word in fashion plates, who was touring America.

At 6:40 the boy appeared and Cecil leaped into his trousers. Without stopping to ascertain whether they actually had been pressed, he flung on his top-coat and hurried out to a taxi-cab which vanked him toward Adelaide's hotel. But a flat tire caused delay and Cecil arrived fifteen minutes late, to be informed by Adelaide's aunt, who traveled with her, that she had gone to dinner with Mr. Watters, thinking Mr. Sargent had forgotten his engagement.

Discouraged, Cecil went to a cafeteria to dine alone. He had intended taking the buyer to a fashionable club, but this service place was good enough for him. As he hung up his coat and seated himself he noticed several persons looking at him and smiling, and he laid it to the loud tie. He wished it was in the garbage can, where it belonged.

"Why Mr. Sargent! This is a surprise!" he looked up and saw Adelaide Amberson, carrying a tray. Then he noticed ed Mr. Watters, who had gone on and found a table. How he hated that dude, by robbing him of Adelaide, was robbing him of Agnes and happiness! Cecil stood up and shook her hand. She gasped as she surveyed him and sudden admiration was evident in her stare.

"Mr. Sargent," she said, speaking rapidly, "I want to dine with you. I'm going to give Mr. Watters the slip. Think of him bringing me into such a place! He thinks my order is clinched, I vent, and dropped into his chair."

but I've changed my mind. Wait in front for me. Why, you adorable boy! Such an innovation—regular King George style!"

She hurried away and Cecil stood in a daze. "Must be the tie," he decided. "It knocked her cold. But where does the king come in?" Then he caught a glimpse of his trousers. They were creased on the sides! "God save the king!" he said ferociously. He thinks my order is clinched, I vent, and dropped into his chair.

A Wanda Hawley photoplay called "The Love Charm," a Fox News reel and a Mermaid comedy "Robinson Crusoe" complete the bill.

BEBE DANIELS — RIVOLI

Wide contrast of types, both in characters and scenery, is afforded in "A Game/Chicken," the new Bebe Daniels Reelact feature opening today at the Rivoli. The scenic setting ranges from the palmy strand of Cuba to the austere stretches of New England, while the characters include Jose and Juanita and Maria galore, with a few Hiram and Joshuas and Catebs for contrast.

Miss Daniels has the role of a Spanish beauty with a fondness for cock-fighting and other sports, and she never has been seen to flatter advantage in any picture. The picture is filled with thrills and there is a genuine love interest throughout.

In this picture, Miss Daniels will be seen to run the best of 'em a close race for "stunt" honors. There are three dives over a wall and through a barn door, head-first; there's a cock-fight (suitably modified for North American consumption); there's a ride on a bucking pony; and a thrilling fire at sea, all woven into the absorbing fabric of this gripping story by Nina Wilcox Putnam.

The supporting cast includes Pat O'Malley, Hugh Thompson, Gertrude Mattox, James Gordon and others.

These are the characters in "Live and Let Live," which will be at the Strand today.

CASINO TODAY

One of Shakespeare's favorite themes is the basis for the plot of "Shadows of Conscience" which will occupy the screen of the Casino theatre today. Again and again in his dramas and poems, the great English classicist refers to the depth of that invisible power that compels a man to go straight in spite of himself. In a number of humorous passages he describes "conscience" as something that ever comes between a man and the attainment of selfish interests, as something that keeps him from complete self-satisfaction.

HEAVY PROPERTY DAMAGE FOLLOWS IN WAKE OF STORM
SIoux Falls, S. D.—Heavy windstorms that swept Central South Dakota late Wednesday damaged numerous farm buildings and wrecked small structures in several towns. The wind was most severe near Pierre, where many buildings were unroofed, stacks of hay scattered broadcast and many outbuildings demolished.
A hailstorm that followed the wind's path at Morrin, sixty miles west of Pierre, caused considerable damage, and some buildings at Deland, northwest of here, were reported wrecked.

The following were appointed on the committee to draw up the constitution for the newly organized Girls' Athletic Council: Helen Hall, chairman; Dorothy Woods, Ina Walz, Elizabeth Hussong.

100 ARRESTED IN ROUND-UP OF LABOR CHIEFS IN CHICAGO

Jails Crowded With Prisoners
Held in Connection With Murders and Bombings

CHICAGO, Ill.—The jails were crowded Thursday with labor leaders and others held in connection with the murders of two policemen and the bombing of two buildings here Wednesday which police attributed to labor disorders. Two men have been pointed out as resembling men in the automobile from which shots which killed Terrence Lyons, acting lieutenant, were fired. Rewards totaling $50,000 have been offered for the arrest of the slayers. More than 100 labor leaders, including "Big Tim" Murphy, Cornelius Shea, and Fred Mader, president of the Building Trades Council, are among those under arrest.

Identify Slayers

The two parties identified as the slayers are, police say, Isadore Braverman, 23, and Max Glazer, 33. Braverman is said to have fired the shots from an automobile, when Lyons was killed and he was pointed out by James A. McClellan and Frederick Blank, patrolmen, who were with Lyons when he was shot to death and Albert Moeller, patrolman, who was seriously injured. Braverman's family has advanced an alibi for him.

Glazer, who is a member of the Glaziers' union, was arrested in a raid on union headquarters and was pointed out by a man who said he was an eye-witness as the slayer of Thomas Clarke, patrolman, who was on guard at a building which previously had been attacked.

James Lafferty, a third suspect, has been under heavy bond in connection with a mail robbery.

Chief of Police Fitzmorris says he believes the men were only hirelings of the "higher up forces in organized labor circles," putting into action a conspiracy to overthrow the Citizens' committee and the Landis' wage award.

Declaring that he agreed with the contention made by the police that "Chicago is in a state of warfare," Judge Scanlon today refused to issue writs of habeas corpus releasing Cornelius Shea and John Lafferty, labor leaders, arrested in connection with the murder of two policemen yesterday morning during a series of labor bombings. He told the police these two men could be held at least until Saturday.

LA FARGE MEN PAY FINES IN POLICE COURTS THURSDAY

Both Intoxicated and One is Cut by Broken Glass at Chamberlain's Place

"This is my last trip to La Crosse for a long time," said Arlie Stout, 18, of La Farge, as he faced Judge Hunt in police court Thursday morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $17.50 and his partner, Herman Dixon, also of La Farge, was taxed $12.50 on a charge of intoxication.

Stout carried two handbags, one on his wrist and the other on his forehead as a result of breaking with his fist the front entrance glass door of Bill Chamberlain's place at 129 South Second street, where he had staggered in to buy sandwiches Wednesday night, police said. While in the Chamberlain establishment, Stout drove his fist through the plastered wall and in being ushered to the exit by the keeper, took a similar plunge at the front door. The glass cut a deep gash in his forehead and also slashed his wrist.

Wandering to Second and Main streets he was picked up by Officers Lang and Beznous and taken to the La Crosse hospital for treatment. Both he and Dixon started today that they remembered nothing of what happened.

Peter Brown paid a fine of $7.50 on a charge of intoxication in police court Wednesday afternoon.

It is but part and parcel of their campaign of unscrupulous insinuation and innuendo and is put out by them in the hope that the people may thereby discourage law abiding citizens from contributing any funds to carry on a campaign for sanity in government.

WHEAT PRICES IN SHARP ADVANCE IN THURSDAY TRADING

CHICAGO, Ill.—Wheat made a steep climb in price Thursday, ascending as much as 7 1-2 c a bushel for May delivery.

Large deliveries, upward of a million bushels, chiefly carlots on railroad tracks here, were made today on May contracts but were readily taken in a manner which created a general impression that no difficulty would be met in moving the grain.

In the trading, pit offerings were scarce and most of the orders in the hands of brokers were on the buying side, encouraged by gossip that a big export business was in progress. Other talk was to the effect that shorts were scouring the country for wheat to deliver here during May and that relatively little was obtainable.

It was only in the last half hour of the board session that any appearance of a flurry was witnessed. Up to that time the rise in price for May had been less than 5c compared with yesterday's finish.

Activity increased in wheat during the final half hour. The volume of trading for the day however, could scarcely be called an unusual aggregate. Upturns in price for other months than May were confined to ordinary limits. The greatest advance being 3c for July delivery. The closing for July was 1.20 the top figures reach.

GERMANY REPLACES WRECKED ZEPPELIN ALLOTTED TO U. S.

VERSAILLES.—Germany will manufacture a Zeppelin of 70,000 metres capacity to replace the one allotted to the United States by the Versailles treaty, but destroyed in Germany, under the award of the ambassadors' council which allows America 3,000,000 gold marks in reparation. The ambassadors' award was authorized by the inter-allied war council, which still has its seat here, controlling all military questions relating to former enemy states and operating under the chairmanship of Marshal Foch.

The United States had asked that Germany be ordered to build for it a 100,000 cubic metre Zeppelin, which would have been the largest ever constructed. The war council at first thought a ship of 30,000 cubic metres capacity should be sufficient, as that was the size fixed by the council for commercial Zeppelins. The cost of such a craft would have been 750,000 gold marks.

The navy department at Washington found this suggestion inadequate, and the war council increased the size to 70,000 metres, which will cost $750,000, making allowance for exchange.

The German government will, it is believed, be able to deliver the airship within nine months. One of the conditions is that a German crew shall take the Zeppelin to the United States, although several American officers will probably accompany the crew in the flight across the Atlantic. The German builders will be expected to incorporate their latest features in the new ship.

NEW YORK.—Speaking before the National Association of Manufacturers, Secretary Davis urged industry to curb excessive wage reductions, declare an armistice with labor and support a more rigid immigration restriction.

Helps digestion —and cleans a coated tongue

Thousands of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by using Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason: Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive process. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer today.

MICHIGAN STUDENT HAZED FOR REFUSAL TO WEAR GREEN CAP

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Excitement that attended the recent refusal of Louis Orr, a Chicago student in the University of Michigan, to wear a freshman cap was revived when it became known that Joseph Van Tyne, freshman, who also refused to wear the cap, had been abducted Wednesday night, ducked in a creek, his hair clipped and with his hands tied behind his back, left at a point four miles from the city.

Van Tyne, son of Prof. Claude Van Tyne of the university history department, made his way to a farmer's house, where he was untied and directed back to the city. Prof. Van Tyne announced he will carry the matter to the faculty and demand immediate action.

Identity of the students who abducted young Van Tyne has not been determined. According to Van Tyne all wore masks. The council of students, organized to make rules governing the student body, denies that body had anything to do with the affair. A council committee waited upon Van Tyne several weeks ago and requested that he conform to the freshman traditions. It was said then he had agreed to do so.

Now a written guarantee to grow hair

No hair—no money
is our proposition

WE have a new method of treating the scalp. It grows hair. It stops falling hair. Under actual clinical tests it grew hair on 91 heads in each hundred treated.

This is to offer it to you. Results are guaranteed. If we fail, you pay nothing. Your own druggist signs the guarantee. Hence you assume no risk in testing.

The name is Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. Dermatologists used to believe that a bald head meant dead hair roots. We have proved this incorrect. The roots seldom die. Four men in 7 are bald or partially bald at 40. Yet only 5 men in 100 need ever be bald.

For 85% of all hair troubles are traced to infected Sebura. Sebura is an oil which forms at the roots of hair. Its natural function is to supply the hair with oil. But frequently it becomes infected. It clogs on the scalp. It plugs the follicles and chokes them. It forms a breeding place for bacteria—germs by millions feed upon the hair and destroy it.

It invites semi-baldness. Soon total baldness follows. But it does not kill the normal hair growth is resumed. This is scientific fact. We guarantee results in writing.

We urge you to try it. Then note results in two weeks. Note the healthy condition of the scalp—the freedom of dandruff, how falling hair is stopped. Observe it at your druggist's. Your money returned if results are not obtained. Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage, made by Van Ess Laboratories, 507 Lake Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.

BRITAIN TO DEMAND IMMEDIATE O. K. OF PALESTINE MANDATE

Approval of U. S. is Announced by Earl of Balfour on Wednesday

GENEVA.—By The Associated Press.—The unexpected introduction of the Palestine mandate question into the agenda of the meeting of the league of nations council, which began Thursday is likely to make the session one of the most important.

Announcement by the Earl of Balfour that he intended to demand immediate approval of the British mandate following formal agreement on the matter between the United States and Great Britain, has amazed league officials. They see in this action the possibility of further friction between Great Britain and France.

Zionists are bringing pressure upon the council for settlement of the mandate question so that the plans for a Jewish state in Palestine can go forward. They are well represented at the meeting and will try to obtain a hearing before the council.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur. Says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.

PAPER MILL WORKERS IN CONFERENCE WITH EMPLOYERS THURSDAY

Strike Depends on Action to be Taken on Proposal to Abolish
Wage Scale

NEW YORK.—Officials of unions representing 30,000 unskilled workers in the newspaper paper making industry conferred Thursday with manufacturers as to whether they would accept or reject a proposal to abolish their international wage scale. Leaders asserted that a strike of the unskilled men was probable, although the skilled workers, including the International Brotherhood of Papermakers Wednesday agreed to sign a new contract.

Reports that four of the largest companies had bolted from the manufacturers' organization were corroborated by officials of the companies affected. The Papermill Paper company settled on these terms: A five percent reduction in the wages of all skilled labor and a minimum scale of 35 cents an hour for unskilled day workers. Shift workers, unskilled, will remain at a minimum of 38 cents an hour but will be reclassified according to a graded system. The total average reduction will be approximately 15 percent.

The Great Northern Paper company settled on a basis of an average of 15 percent reduction. This however is proportionately smaller than the reduction offered by the Papermill company because it is the first to take place in two years.

MOTHERS' DAY TO BE OBSERVED BY SALVATION ARMY

Local Branch of Big Organization Plans Special Observance of Day

Mother's day will be celebrated on Sunday next, May 14th by the local branch of the Salvation Army, as well as by members of the organization throughout the whole country. The idea of Mother's day originated in this country in 1908, Anna Jarvis being the originator. Mother's day has been adopted everywhere. In Europe and other neighboring countries it is observed on the 1st of May. In this country May 14 was set apart officially as Mother's day by a resolution passed by the house of representatives on May 10th, 1913.

"Gets-It" Removes Corns Quick

No matter how tough or how stubborn it may have been, the corn or callus that is touched with a few drops of "Gets-It" is doomed to a quick, easy, sure and painless end. Never again can it pain you. Soon you are holding in your fingers the entire remains—a single piece of dead, shriveled skin that you throw away—forever. Hard corns, soft corns, any corn. Costs but a trifle—and guaranteed. Try it. E. Lawrence & Co., Mfrs., Chicago. Sold in La Crosse by C. L. Lien and The Rexall Store.

recommending observance of the day by the house and senate, the president, his cabinet and all government officials.

The object of Mother's day as observed by the Salvation Army is twofold: (1) to foster filial affection in children, and (2) to bring home to mothers the sacredness, responsibility, and far reaching influence for good or evil of their motherhood.

Children commemorate the day by presenting to their mother a flower, emblem of the purity and fidelity of motherhood.

To which in the case of children and young people attending Salvation Army halls, is attached a card of invitation to the meetings of the day. Those whose mothers are not living are urged to place on their graves a few white flowers.

Salvationists who are mothers also take a prominent part in the meetings which are of a character specially fitting for the occasion.

SONS TO CONTEST WILL OF CROKER

DUBLIN.—By The Associated Press.—Solicitors acting in behalf of the late Richard Croker's two sons in the United States, served notice upon Mrs. Croker's solicitors Thursday that they had been instructed to enter a caveat in an Irish court against the will of Mr. Croker when it was lodged for probate. This, it was said, would make a trial necessary to prove the will and the competency of the testator.

MORVICH LOOKED UPON TO COP IN TURF CLASSIC

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—By The Associated Press.—Dreams of negro stable boys that out of Kentucky once again would come the winner of the super-classic of the turf set for Saturday, gave way to stern reality in the form of Morvich, favorite of the east, with the announcement from the F. L. Bradley stable that "only by a miracle" could Busy American, the acknowledged hope of the west, face the barrier in the Kentucky Derby.

However, the Bradley stable still boasts two good candidates and, according to Trainer Thompson, Morvich will not take first place from By Gosh and Bet Mesic.

CARPENTIER HEAVY FAVORITE TO BEAT KID LEWIS THURSDAY NIGHT FOR LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHT

LONDON.—By the Associated Press.—Georges Carpentier will enter the ring Thursday in the Black Friar's road arena a heavy favorite over Ted (Kid) Lewis in their twenty round match for the world's light heavy-weight championship.

Jack Dempsey will be here to witness the battle and is confident Carpentier will have a walk-away. While the weights of the men have not been given out, it is believed Lewis will step through the ropes against a 12 pound handicap, but his backers are looking for him to make up the difference by his gameness and ability to use both hands effectively. Lewis is expected to keep the milling at close quarters, to counteract the Frenchman's inclination for long range fighting.

MEADOWS BLANKS CUBS WITH 3 HITS

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Richie Mitchell will easily make 138 lbs with Ever Hammer at the Auditorium Friday night. At the conclusion of his workout Wednesday at his upper river camp, he stepped on the scales and registered 137.

GAME IS HALTED TO REPAIR SOX U. S. C. GIRLS WIN

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Girl baseball teams of the University of Southern California and Occidental college met Wednesday on the former's diamond in a seven inning game which ended with a score of 66 to 18, in favor of U. S. C. At the end of the fifth inning the score was 30 to 7. Home runs were too numerous to tabulate. The contest would have gone a regulation nine innings had one of the players not torn a hole in her stocking. She refused to play until repairs had been made. The delay shortened the contest to seven innings.

LOCAL ASSESSORS AT WORK ON TAX ROLLS FOR 1922

Increase of Two Hundred Million in Taxable Property Expected this Year

MADISON, Wis.—Several hundred local assessors are now in the midst of their work making up the assessment rolls for the coming year. Actual assessment work was begun the first of this month all over the state, according to Chairman Thomas E. Lyons of the state tax commission. Under the statutes the assessments are supposed to be ready for the meeting of the local boards of review the last Monday in June in towns and the first Monday in July in cities.

"Because of the large amount of work involved the work is rarely completed on these dates in the cities," said Mr. Lyons on Thursday. "In many cities the Boards of Review do not meet before the latter part of October."

An increase of approximately $200,000,000 in taxable property is expected this year. This has been the average increase in past years. For 1921 the total local assessments amounted to $4,076,942,854 which was raised by the state assessment made by the state tax commission to $4,600,000,000.

Of the 1921 state assessment some $3,670,000,000 was against real estate and only $924,500,000 against personal property.

Under a law passed at the special session of the legislature and signed by Governor Blaine March 15th is now the last day for the payment of taxes. The actual payment of taxes will probably start next December, but the extension to March 15th was passed to make the state law correspond with the present federal tax time limit.

Wisconsin Business University,

Gentlemen:—"I have accepted a position with the Progressive Printing Company of Muscoda, Wisconsin, at a salary of $20 per week. I have charge of the advertising department which is the best part of the printing business today. With my previous experience on two student publications at the University of Wisconsin, the Cardinal and the Country Mag. I expect no trouble in newspaper work. One does not realize what a business education will do until he gets into the game. The 'WBU' has opened the door for me to OPPORTUNITY. I shall always recommend the 'WBU' to my friends as the FOREMOST BUSINESS SCHOOL. I am only 50 miles from Madison, which has several business colleges, but on account of my friends' advice I came to La Crosse to receive my training. Following are some of my friends who are graduates of the 'WBU' and some of the positions they are employed in: Agnes Mousseau, Richland Center, Wis., with J. W. Martin, Secy of the Red Polled Cattle Club of America. Employed as stenographer and bookkeeper. Kathryn Eagan, Muscoda, Wis., commercial teacher Mauston High School, Mauston, Wisconsin. Ella Kurners, Muscoda, Wis., formerly commercial teacher of the Fountain City High School, now at Whitewater Normal.

You cannot get a surer guarantee of a good paying position than "WBU" business training. The PROOF is given you every week.

To the ambitious, stenography and bookkeeping are big stepping stones to success. How far you may advance is up to you. Nothing else will give you such OPPORTUNITY.
